

STRONG MARTIN CLUB ORGANIZED

His Friends Claim Seven Hundred Members for New Organization.

CABELL MAKING STILL HUNT

Petersburg to Have New Warehouse for Storage of Peanuts.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., August 12.—A formal public announcement of the organization and officers of the Thomas S. Martin Club, of Petersburg, was made today. The officers are: President, Bartlett Cooper, Sr.; Secretary, J. E. McNamara.

A list of vice-presidents to the number of 120—each of the wards being represented by 20 names, and an Executive Committee of thirty-five from each ward is given. It is claimed that over seven hundred voters in this city have enrolled their names as members of the club, embracing in large measure the business and professional men of the city. The names of several distinguished clergymen appear in the list of vice-presidents. The organization is a strong and particularly active one. Under its auspices, Senator Martin will speak here on the 18th instant, and arrangements are being made to give him a grand reception.

The friends of Governor Montague are working quietly, but effectively, and they make the claim that they will show up well on election day.

CABELL, BY PETERSBURG.
Mr. Alston Cabell, of Richmond, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, spent today in Petersburg, meeting many old friends and being introduced to a large number of new people. His reception was very cordial and gratifying.

Chief J. E. Parley, of the Petersburg Police Department, left today for Duluth, Minn., to attend the annual convention of the International Association of Fire Chiefs, which will be held August 14-15-16.

The condition of Alderman W. H. Lane, who has been ill with typhoid fever for some time, and who was thought to be improving the early part of this week, has been rendered more unfavorable by a relapse.

Major A. R. Moody, of this city, commanding the Second Battalion, the Seventy-second Virginia Regiment, has announced the following staff appointments:

E. G. Roberts, Clifton Forge, first lieutenant and adjutant.

J. D. Bodow, of Roanoke, first lieutenant and surgeon.

H. O. Dahlen, of Petersburg, sergeant-major.

Robert N. Partin, of Petersburg, hospital steward.

NEW WAREHOUSE.
A large warehouse for the storage of peanuts and other produce, to be erected on Lombard Street, by Mr. E. A. Hartley. The contract for the work has been let out, and the foundations for the building are now being dug. The warehouse will be completed in time for the fall business.

Mr. R. R. Raymond, the courteous manager of the Western Union office in this city, left today accompanied by his family for Radford, Va., to spend his vacation.

A series of protracted meetings will be held next week in Dinwiddie county. A number of churches in that vicinity have joined in holding a big meeting at the country courthouse.

Of the first half of this year's city taxes due July 1st, but payable without penalty until August 10th, the collector has received and turned into the treasury about $75,000. On the 1st of July, the city had a balance of over $100,000 in its treasury, so that at the present time, with so large an amount in taxes coming in, it is somewhat flush of funds.

A BAD FALL.
Mr. Joseph H. Turner, a well known carpenter, residing on Commerce Street, while trimming a tree yesterday afternoon on West High Street, accidentally lost his footing and fell to the ground, a distance of nearly thirty feet. He was stunned and had one rib broken, but fortunately escaped serious injury.

The funeral of the late Jerome B. Brown took place this afternoon from High Street Methodist Episcopal Church. It was largely attended by friends, Confederate veterans, Odd-Fellows and Pythians, of which orders he was a member.

Mrs. Eliza M. Keith, widow of Captain Louis Gordon Keith, United States navy, died in Brooklyn, N. Y., Thursday, at the advanced age of eighty-two years. She is survived by an only daughter, Mrs. Mary Isam Vaughan, of Walker's Springs, Ala., and three sisters and a brother. One sister is Mrs. Emily G. Battle, of Richmond. She was a sister of Mrs. Charles D. and Charles M. Gilliam, of Petersburg. Her funeral will take place in Brooklyn on Monday, and the body will be brought to Petersburg for interment in Blandford Cemetery.

His Lip Cut Off.

James Jackson (colored) got into a fight with one of his colored friends, who wielded a knife to such effect that he succeeded in cutting off Jackson's lip. The lip was dressed by the ambulance surgeon. The offender, whose name is not known, escaped.

ATTEMPT MADE TO KILL PRESIDENT

Man Carrying Revolver Rushed From Behind Monument.

Overpowered.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, August 12.—Minister Blumenthal, accompanied by the State Department to-day that a laborer named Blahus Vello attempted to assassinate President Manuel Quintana yesterday afternoon as the President's carriage was passing Retiro Park. The assailant, with a revolver in his hand, rushed from behind a monument, but the President's aide-de-camp threw himself from the carriage upon the assailant, overpowered him and prevented him from shooting. The man was arrested. He is supposed to be insane.
